GLOAMING'S GREAT RECORD

New Zealand Gelding Wins Sprinting Stakes in 45 Seconds.

Son of The Welkin and Light a Horse of Marvelous Speed—
Has Won $111,365.

Gloaming, the Australian middle distance champion, made a new mark at a half mile in a New Zealand race last January of 45 seconds. Evidently the fleet gelding is again in his best form, and is winning races with his old dash and speed in the land of his birth, New Zealand.

Gloaming is again on his way to the Australian continent to measure himself a second time with the best of the horses of the Victoria and New South Wales districts, such as Poirrel, Cetigne and Kennequah, in weight-for-age races and handicaps. Gloaming bled in a race at Randwick last year and was sent home, supposedly at the end of his career. He has, however, won twelve times in succession since Poirrel downed him in the Australian Jockey Club Spring Stakes, and is now added to the Australian and New Zealand list of winners of $100,000 and over.

Two months ago at the Trentham, Wellington, N. Z., course, in the half-mile weight-for-age Kelburn Plate, Gloaming won from a fast band, including Rational, a crack two-year-old by Absurd, in 45 seconds, a new Australian record.

Gloaming has always raced as a gelding. He started first as a three-year-old. Knee trouble held him in the stable as a two-year-old. He is now five, and has raced three seasons. The Australian year ends with June, so that he is well along in 1921. Gloaming is by The Welkin—Light, and well named. In his career the gelding has run thirty-two races, won twenty-eight of them, been second in three more, and was but once unplaced, when he fell in the North Island Stakes on the Trentham, Wellington, N. Z., course, upon which he made his last and fastest record.

As a three-year-old Gloaming won thirteen races and $60,880, was second in two races and fell in one race, as follows:

SPEED OF WORLD-FAMOUS RACES

WINNING PERFORMANCES IN NOTABLE EVENTS OF ENGLAND, FRANCE AND AUSTRALIA---SOME OF THE MARKS THE BEST ON RECORD

The records made by the winners of famous races in England, France and Australia are shown in the table below. The figures include the individual horses, their breeding, weights carried and the years in which the performances were made. Some of the records, such as those of Bracket, Pommern, Marajax and Pradella, are the best on record in British racing. Some of the French records are near the top. All the records are notable for speed, though the peculiarity of foreign racing in big races is not that of fast early effort at distances and weights. The figures are worth while for reference:

IMPROVEMENT AT LOUISVILLE TWENTY-ONE YOUNG HORSES

Weather Moderates and Training Resumed—Offer for Jockey Wida's Contract.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 30.—Weather conditions here showed vast improvement today with a moderate temperature prevailing and both the Douglas Park and Churchill Downs race tracks were in good condition. The two courses were thronged with horses for several hours, the trainers making up for the time they lost because of the rain, snow and cold weather.

At the Downs the horses were sent along at fast gallops, the best moves being by Marjorie Hynes, which ran three-quarters of a mile in 1:14 1/4, and C. C. Van Meter's Kentucky Derby eligible Coyne and Brother Batch, which went seven-eighths in 1:30. The Derby colts ran fast the first part of it, going the quarter in 24 1/2, half mile in 49 and three-quarters in 1:16. Trainer Van Meter switched riders this morning, jockey Mack Garner piloting Coyne for the first time in his trial. Brother Batch's throat has been under suspicion for several days, as he breathed a bit hard at times after a work-out, but he showed no signs of it this morning.

Over at Douglas Park trainer Alex Gordon gave Muskallonge, "End" Fisher's Derby candidate, an easy mile, 1:48 1/2. He was never extended. Red Legs went a mile in 1:49 at the same course. Other Derby eligibles worked as follows: Sir Thomas Kean, three-quarters in 1:21 1/2; Guv'nor, half mile, in 53; Fantoche, three-quarters in 1:20 1/2; Gangway, mile in 1:52 1/2, and Botheration, three-eighths in 40 1/2.

Starter A. B. Dade came up from his home in Henderson, Ky., to look over the schooling of two-year-olds at the two tracks and to urge upon the owners and trainers the necessity of sending their horses to the barrier for education as early as possible.

Trainer George V. Barnes yesterday received a lucrative offer for the contract which C. W. Clark, his employer, holds on jockey Steve Wida. It came from a New York turfman.

Jockey Lee Mink has been engaged to ride for Ahern & Boyle on the Kentucky circuit. This stable includes the horses owned by Baylor Hickman, local capitalist.

George Swain, agent for the E. R. Bradley stable at New Orleans during the winter, who survived an attack of double pneumonia in the Crescent city, was an arrival today.

Flags was on his customary bad behavior this morning at Douglas Park and an attempt to make him take exercise resulted in his again throwing his rider. It took several of the Lloyd Gentry stable attendants to corral him, but they prevented him from running away.

General manager Matt J. Winn today announced that the first race at Lexington would begin each day at 2 p. m.

There is little doubt that Gloaming's sensational half-mile record of 45 seconds was correct, as several experienced watch-holders agreed with the official timekeeper. It was a marvelous performance, considering the bad run he received, and only a phenomenal galloper could have succeeded. The crack New Zealand youngster, Mermin, was not a runner, which is a pity, considering he proved himself Rational's superior. As the latter was only beaten a head, it looks as if Mermin, had he been engaged, would have won.

She is in James Rowe's band of H. P. Whitney youngsters at the Brookdale Farm, Red Bank, N. J. Regret was the only filly that ever won the Kentucky Derby.

NEW ORLEANS SPEEDY TWO-YEAR-OLD

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30.—New Orleans, a bay colt, by Dick Welles—Floral Day, is the best two-year-old in the Clopton Stable at Bowie. New Orleans has worked three-eighths through the backstretch at Bowie in 36 seconds since his arrival.

LEXINGTON'S FILLY RACE

Old Established Ashland Oaks to Be Run April 26.

Nancy Lee, Believe Idle Hour and Other Crack Fillies Among Its Nominations.

The Ashland Oaks, with a history dating back to 1879, is scheduled to be run on the third day of the Lexington spring meeting, Tuesday, April 26. During the first four years of the running of this stake the distance was one and a half miles, from 1883 to 1889 inclusive, one and a quarter miles, and since then at its present distance of one mile. Despite the early date of its decision the Ashland Oaks attracts a good entry list and this year is no exception. A field with Believe Idle Hour, Nancy Lee, Polythia, Miss Muffins, Jacobina and several others among the eligibles would certainly assure a race worthy of the best traditions of this old fixture. The conditions of and nominations for this event follow:

ASHLAND OAKS—$3,000 added. For three-year-old fillies. By subscription of $10 each; $50 additional to start; $3,000 added, of which $350 to second and $150 to third. Acceptances to be named through the entry box the day before the race at usual time of closing. One mile.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Jockey F. Coltilletti will ride the Clopton horses again this year and H. P. Whitney will have second call on his services.

Monday at Kempton Park, England, Trespasser, 13 to 8, won the Queen's Prize. Double Up, 2 to 1, was second and Hunt Law, 9 to 2, was third. Eighteen horses ran.

Several American breeders visiting England have inspected Kwang Su, the half-brother to Lemberg and Bayardo, but so far he has failed to make an appeal to them.

The stables of Samuel D. Riddle and Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords of Pennsylvania, from Glen Riddle Farm, are expected at Havre de Grace toward the end of the week.

Old Hauberk, in "Buck" Forman's stable at Bowie, is not any too sound. He will not be hurried and Forman does not expect to get him back to the races before well along in the summer.

The figures include the individual horses, their breeding, weights carried and the years in which the performances were made. Some of the records, such as those of Bracket, Pommer, Marajax and Pradella, are the best on record in British racing. Some of the French records are near the top. All the records are notable for speed, though the peculiarity of foreign racing in big races is not that of fast early effort at distances and weights. The figures are worth while for reference:

IMPROVEMENT AT LOUISVILLE

Weather Moderates and Training Resumed—Offer for Jockey Wida's Contract.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 30.—Weather conditions here showed vast improvement today with a moderate temperature prevailing and both the Douglas Park and Churchill Downs race tracks were in good condition. The two courses were thronged with horses for several hours, the trainers making up for the time they lost because of the rain, snow and cold weather.

At the Downs the horses were sent along at fast gallops, the best moves being by Marjorie Hynes, which ran three-quarters of a mile in 1:14 1/4, and C. C. Van Meter's Kentucky Derby eligible Coyne and Brother Batch, which went seven-eighths in 1:30. The Derby colts ran fast the first part of it, going the quarter in 24 1/2, half mile in 49 and three-quarters in 1:16. Trainer Van Meter switched riders this morning, jockey Mack Garner piloting Coyne for the first time in his trial. Brother Batch's throat has been under suspicion for several days, as he breathed a bit hard at times after a work-out, but he showed no signs of it this morning.

Over at Douglas Park trainer Alex Gordon gave Muskallonge, "End" Fisher's Derby candidate, an easy mile, 1:48 1/2. He was never extended. Red Legs went a mile in 1:49 at the same course. Other Derby eligibles worked as follows: Sir Thomas Kean, three-quarters in 1:21 1/2; Guv'nor, half mile, in 53; Fantoche, three-quarters in 1:20 1/2; Gangway, mile in 1:52 1/2, and Botheration, three-eighths in 40 1/2.

Starter A. B. Dade came up from his home in Henderson, Ky., to look over the schooling of two-year-olds at the two tracks and to urge upon the owners and trainers the necessity of sending their horses to the barrier for education as early as possible.

Trainer George V. Barnes yesterday received a lucrative offer for the contract which C. W. Clark, his employer, holds on jockey Steve Wida. It came from a New York turfman.

Jockey Lee Mink has been engaged to ride for Ahern & Boyle on the Kentucky circuit. This stable includes the horses owned by Baylor Hickman, local capitalist.

George Swain, agent for the E. R. Bradley stable at New Orleans during the winter, who survived an attack of double pneumonia in the Crescent city, was an arrival today.

Flags was on his customary bad behavior this morning at Douglas Park and an attempt to make him take exercise resulted in his again throwing his rider. It took several of the Lloyd Gentry stable attendants to corral him, but they prevented him from running away.

General manager Matt J. Winn today announced that the first race at Lexington would begin each day at 2 p. m.

There is little doubt that Gloaming's sensational half-mile record of 45 seconds was correct, as several experienced watch-holders agreed with the official timekeeper. It was a marvelous performance, considering the bad run he received, and only a phenomenal galloper could have succeeded. The crack New Zealand youngster, Mermin, was not a runner, which is a pity, considering he proved himself Rational's superior. As the latter was only beaten a head, it looks as if Mermin, had he been engaged, would have won.

New Orleans has worked three-eighths through the backstretch at Bowie in 36 seconds since his arrival.

LEXINGTON'S FILLY RACE

Old Established Ashland Oaks to Be Run April 26.

Nancy Lee, Believe Idle Hour and Other Crack Fillies Among Its Nominations.

The Ashland Oaks, with a history dating back to 1879, is scheduled to be run on the third day of the Lexington spring meeting, Tuesday, April 26. During the first four years of the running of this stake the distance was one and a half miles, from 1883 to 1889 inclusive, one and a quarter miles, and since then at its present distance of one mile. Despite the early date of its decision the Ashland Oaks attracts a good entry list and this year is no exception. A field with Believe Idle Hour, Nancy Lee, Polythia, Miss Muffins, Jacobina and several others among the eligibles would certainly assure a race worthy of the best traditions of this old fixture. The conditions of and nominations for this event follow:

ASHLAND OAKS—$3,000 added. For three-year-old fillies. By subscription of $10 each; $50 additional to start; $3,000 added, of which $350 to second and $150 to third. In addition to first money the winner to receive a Cup donated by Mr. T. C. McDowell. Maidens allowed 5 pounds. Acceptances to be named through the entry box the day before the race at usual time of closing. One mile.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Jockey F. Coltilletti will ride the Clopton horses again this year and H. P. Whitney will have second call on his services.

Monday at Kempton Park, England, Trespasser, 13 to 8, won the Queen's Prize. Double Up, 2 to 1, was second and Hunt Law, 9 to 2, was third. Eighteen horses ran.

Several American breeders visiting England have inspected Kwang Su, the half-brother to Lemberg and Bayardo, but so far he has failed to make an appeal to them.

The stables of Samuel D. Riddle and Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords of Pennsylvania, from Glen Riddle Farm, are expected at Havre de Grace toward the end of the week.

Old Hauber, in "Buck" Forman's stable at Bowie, is not any too sound. He will not be hurried and Forman does not expect to get him back to the races before well along in the summer.

GOOD RACING AT TIJUANA

Marinelli Resumes Riding and Continues Winning Way—Pepper Tea to Start Sunday.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 30.—De Land, the fast sprinter from the Weant stable, was the winner of what might be called the feature race of Tuesday afternoon, finishing a length in front of Joe Goodman, which in turn bested the even-money favorite, Wild Thoughts, by a half length. The son of King Olympian was admirably ridden by Jockey Hayward, who saved him in front to the last eighth, then withstood the rush of Joe Goodman when he came from far back. Wild Thoughts was away slowly and little Josiah found trouble in placing his mount. However, he closed up fast through the final eighth and was a close contender
at the end.

The opening race of the afternoon, for two-year-olds, fell to the Nevada-bred filly Tabloid. Paying better than 9 to 1 she surprised all by wearing the pacemaker, Captain Greet, down to win drawing clear. It was third.

Jockey Marinelli's return to the saddle after a brief absence, owing to illness, by piloting Review a winner from a big band of spriters in the second race. The little Italian saddle artist saved his mount until in the stretch, where he sent him into the lead to win by an open length
from Cohalt and Little Orphan.

July Fly and Lady Harrigan left the barrier in the third race, at three-quarters, as one horse and continued in that close order until rounding the last turn, where they became exhausted. It was then that Miss Hermann was brought up on the outside with a well-timed rush and passing the judges she showed her head in front of Manikin II., with the weakly ridden Lady Harrigan in third place.

The bush king, Celebrate, continued in winning form and won another set of brackets when he led Stanley H. and George James home in the fourth race.

Judge David, which met with considerable bad luck in his previous race, found a clear course
and, paying almost 15 to 1, triumphed over Woodie Montgomery and Peerless One in the mile and a sixteenth race. It was not a true race, as Verdi Leon and Walk Up were away poorly, while Sweep Apple met with sharp interference on the backstretch.

Jockey Marinelli's ride on Bardora in the concluding dash was of the highest order and his thoughtfulness in taking the filly back and saving her enabled the Polk miller to retain the burst of speed which she showed after entering the stretch.
When Bardora's rider called on the filly she raced past the leaders with a rush and won in a canter, with Runcraft and Le Dinosaur finishing in the order named. Deckhand, which showed the way to the last eighth, tired in the final drive.

BARBARA SHILLING IN FATAL COLLISION.
A spectacular collision occurred this morning on the track which resulted in the death of the good plate, Barbara Shilling. Jockey Mulcahy, who was astride of the mare, received injuries which enforced his removal to a hospital. Barbara Shilling, in company with Iron Man, was working when the former collided with a loose horse. The mare received internal injuries from which she later died and Mulcahy was thrown violently to the ground and rendered unconscious. The other horse and rider escaped injury.

Owner C. R. Worthington, who had intended shipping his string of thoroughbreds to Lexington, Ky., tomorrow, has postponed his departure until after the running of the $5,000 Tijuana Futurity, which is scheduled to be run next Sunday. Worthington, who is the proud owner of the unbeaten filly Pepper Tea, intends running an entry in the stake race. Besides sending his western champion he will saddle Lillian Loraine and these two will be his standard bearers.

C. B. Irwin, the Wyoming turfman, has thrown the following horses out of training and they were turned out today: Art Dick, Ollie Lee, Little Spider, The Gallant and Myrtle A.

Phedon, the property of G. Allen, is another that has gone wrong and she has also been placed where she can run out next summer.

Racing secretary Leon Wing has programmed a mile and a quarter hurdle race for next Sunday over five obstacles. There are at least fifteen horses that have had schooling and a good field is expected to start. Among these which worked over the jumps yesterday were Medford Boy, Shamrock Green, Coronado, Nepperhan, Doc Vaughn, Cork
and Appleto.

George W. Wingfield, master of the Nevada Stock Farm, arrived here today. Wingfield came to witness the running of the Tijuana Futurity and intends spending his holidays here until after the running of the Coffroth Handicap.

Jockey Hayward, who was unseated from Last Chance in the second race, fell in the middle of the big field of fifteen, but luckily escaped without a scratch.

Jockey R. Marinelli was easily the star of the riding fraternity yesterday, riding two winners out of three chances and increased the great popularity which he enjoys here.

$900,000 TO $30,000 IN ONE BET

Betting in England is much more widely diffused than ever it was, though the huge wagers which marked what is called the Hastings era are nowadays unknown. I lately came upon a copy of a letter from one of the most famous racing men of the previous generation, Captain Macchell. He had been questioned by a friend on the subject and wrote in reply, dating from Newmarket September, 1874: "In answer to your letter the Duke of Hamilton made the bet of $900,000 to $30,000 against Hermit for the Derby with me. It was off some weeks afterward. Mr. Chaplin had a large bet with Lord Hastings, but I do not remember the amount. Yours very truly, J. C. Macchell."—A. E.
F. Watson in Badminton Magazine.

FOXHALL KEENE WILL RACE JUMPERS

Foxhall Keene will race three jumpers, Masterful, Toreador and Subadmiral, this year. They will be trained by A. C. Blume. Mr. Keene has applied to the National Hunt Association for the last Saturday in October, upon which to repeat the annual jumping event upon the course of his estate in Harford County, Maryland.

HORSE PHOTOGRAPHY AN ART

Two English Experts Excel in Work—Climate an Advantage.

(BY SALVATOR.)

There are two great horse camera masters in England, W. A. Rouch and Clarence Hurley.
If I were at liberty to gratify one of my wishes,
I would be the possessor of a complete set of the Rouch photos, which to me are the finest in existence. Extended experience and unequalled opportunities, coupled with equal ability, have combined to produce in Rouch what we might almost term the ideal equine photographer. He is an adept at not only posing a horse, but in judging those so-trick factors, light and time, with such skill that the results he obtains often appear to me little short of miraculous. But in comparing his work with that of C. C. Cook, or other American photographers, it must always be remembered that he has a distinct atmospheric advantage over them.

Contrary to the usual idea, the best photographs of horses are not made in the glaring sunlight, but under conditions of softer, more diffused light, resembling that which a portrait photographer obtains
by means of screens, curtain, etc., in his studio.
Thus, intensely deep, black shadows are avoided, the "values" photographically are, if less striking,
more natural, and in particular the various planes and surfaces in the conformation and contour of the animal more truly rendered. In England the rays of the sun are less brilliant, as a general rule, than here, the light more diffused; hence the more exquisite effects there so often obtained.

Recently in the New York edition of Daily Racing Form there was reproduced an old-time photograph, taken half a century ago, of the mighty Longfellow, with Bobby Swim up and old John Harper, frail and tottering, standing at his idol's head. It was from a photo by Pach, and depicts the son of Leamington and Nantura
as he appeared in the days of his rivalry with Harry Bassett. I have one dating nearly fifteen years later, which represents the stud Sultan, as he appeared after years of service, the fruits of which were many sons and daughters of high racing prowess. The differences between the two photos are striking.

Another photo in my collection, taken at the same time and in the same spot—at Frank Harper's Nantura Stud—shows Ten Broeck at a similar period in his career and shortly before his untimely taking off. Longfellow is the more massive of the two, Ten Broeck the more racing-like—even in stud condition his outline is inevitably suggestive of speed. These portraits were made by Mullen of Lexington, in former years by far the best horse photographer of that era, and later I have Fellows, Glenzie, Himyar, Lisbon, King Ban,
Falsetto, Harry O'Fallon, King Alfonso and Prince Charlie; while, lastly, there is a very beautiful one of Hanover, who in type, as he was in greatness, looks every inch the horse he was.

All of these celebrated sires it is Himyar whose blood has bred on most successfully and is today the most potent. Curiously enough, he looks the least "thoroughbred" of the whole lot, being in appearance more of the trotting than the thoroughbred type. His body is long, his legs comparatively short, the hind legs having a decided angle at the hock, while his front ankles show plainly the effects of his campaigns. His head is not particularly refined; his throat-latch not so clean as it might be. There is a rather cut-under and tied-in effect in the foreleg just below the knee. The calf and second thigh are of such shape as almost to suggest "bench-leggedness" behind. In other words, Himyar is the opposite of the modern racing type in several conspicuous respects. A contemporary description of Himyar as "rather short ribs, which make his flank look light." And this the portrait discloses.

From the standpoint of conformation Himyar would today be voted distinctly below par. Yet he was the speed marvel of his era, the fastest miler ever seen in America up to that time, and able also to win at two miles in 3:35—then a brilliant performance. The only native blood Himyar carried that derived through his dam line, by Lexington—Hegira, by Ambassador, next dam Flight, by Lexington. All three of these mares were famous race mares before being put to the stud, and many
"no figure" crosses are shown in their ancestries.
Himyar was far from being the best American stallion of his day, on a "pure-sang" basis. He was far from being the best shaped. Nor did he, for years, have the best stud opportunities. Yet his blood has carried on amazingly. His son Domino and grandson Commando, had they lived out the seasons apparently allotted their genius defect of conformation today occupy places unrivaled among latter day American progenitors—they do, in a way, as it is. Who can answer these enigmas of breeding, which upset all formulas and play havoc with theories and precepts, save only that one which bids us "breed to the winner"?

Returning, in closing, to the photographic theme,
since his arrival in Kentucky to enter the stud,
some interesting and successful photos have been made of Man o' War by McClure of Lexington and others. They reveal him like Himyar, to be by no means "the glass of fashion and the mold of form." But he is the first and only horse produced in America which has been able to surpass Himyar's son Domino as a money-winner—and this he does only by virtue of his semi-circus performance at Windsor, the like of which never figured in Domino's career.

CRACK O' DAWN LEAVES TIJUANA

SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 30.—Crack o' Dawn,
the Tijuana Derby winner, and other horses owned by C. Koehler were loaded this morning and left on the evening train for Graysen track in Brooklyn, N. Y. Those in the shipment embraced Thunderstorm, Martin A. Noonan, Nebulous, King Agrippa, Thrifty, Headman and Jim Coffroth.
The latter trainer D. Kearney purchased at private sale prior to leaving. It has been the intention of the stable to wait until after the running of the Coffroth Handicap before shipping East. However, Thunderstorm, falling lame, deprived the Kocher crack of having any chance, hence the early departure.

RIDER CARSLAKE'S CAREER

Talented Australian Jockey Has Worked in Many Lands with Success.

The Australian rider, R. Carslake, who is accounted to be the best horseman among riders in England, has had a varied experience. For a number of years after leaving Australia Carslake rode for Baron Springer, in Austria. That owner was one of the leading lights of the sporting world in that country. He bred horses on an extensive scale, and purchased them in a most lavish manner. He probably had the best horses of the day in Vienna, and Carslake rode many winners for the Baron. Then the war broke out, Carslake made his way to Roumania and rode there until the Germans took possession of that country. He found his way to Odessa, South Russia, and rode for Leon Mantacheff, the oil magnate. Again the Germans moved Carslake out to Moscow and Petrograd.

Inside of three weeks the Kerensky revolution broke out in the Russian capital. Racing was still permitted, but only in the nature of trials. A start was made at nine in the morning, and the sport, such as it was, ended at lunch. There was no betting, and the public were not permitted to attend. Carslake rode ninety-two winners there, but matters gradually got worse than ever, and he resolved to make for England.

It took him eighteen days to get to Leeds, England via Bergen in Norway. Once there he made a contract with H. H. Perse, the Cleatles Hill trainer, for whom he has ridden steadily until the present season.

This year Carslake is to ride for such owners as the Duke of Westminster, Col. McAlmont, and Clarke and Robinson. Two seasons ago he ended up second on the winning jockey's list with sixty-nine firsts and forty-six seconds, and twenty-seven thirds. Last season Carslake rode sixty-seven winners in 290 mounts and led in percentage of wins. He was third to S. Donoghue and Frank Bullock, both of whom, however, can ride much lighter—the former going to scale at 106 pounds, and Bullock at 108 pounds, while Carslake finds it hard work to do 116 pounds.

ARCHAIC'S ROYAL PEDIGREE

Female Line of Mr. Sanford's Recently Acquired Stallion.

Lock and Key, His Granddam, and Keystone II., His Mother, Both Famous.

(BY E. E. COUSSELL.)

LONDON, England, March 12.—All Daily Racing Form readers are familiar with the tabulated pedigree and the performances of Mr. John Sanford's imported stallion Archaic. As it is not unlikely that the son of Polymelus is destined to exercise considerable influence on the American thoroughbred, a study of his female line may prove interesting.

Lock and Key, the granddam of Archaic, was acquired by the father of the present Lord Derby in 1898. She was bred by the Duchess of Montrose. As a yearling in 1894 Lock and Key was sold for $250. Lord Derby did not buy her until she had been one season at the stud and it was a private sale.

Curiously, a few minutes after Lock and Key was offered in the sale ring as a yearling, Canterbury Pilgrim came up at auction. Lord Derby bought her for $9,000. Two years later she won the Oaks. Afterward she became the dam of Chaucer and Swynford. The latter sired Keysee, winner of the St. Leger in 1919. She was from a daughter of Lock and Key. Truly these two transactions had great influence on the British turf. Ten minutes after Canterbury Pilgrim had been sold Sir James Miller gave $20,500 for Roquebrune, the dam of Rock Sand.

It may be worth mentioning the pedigree of Archaic for a few generations in order to appreciate the information which follows. Archaic is by Polymelus, Keystone II. by Persimmon, Lock and Key by Janissary, Seclusion by Hermit, Boundary by Stockwell—Bribery, by The Libel—Splitvote, by St. Luke, Electress by Election from a mare by Stamford. He is a member of Bruce Lowe's Number 2 family.

Polymelus, the sire of Archaic, enjoys such a world-wide reputation that he needs no further description beyond stating that he was the champion stallion in Great Britain in 1914, 1915, 1916 and 1920. His offspring from 1911 to 1920 won 239½ races and stakes, value $4,114,800. Not a few of his most famous sons and daughters have been from mares by Persimmon—the cross which produced Archaic.

Keystone II., dam of Archaic, was a high-class mare and won $64,145 in stakes. She won the Oaks by three lengths, twelve ran; Coronation Stakes, Ascot; three-year-old Produce Stakes at Sandown Park with 133 pounds by one and one-half lengths; Liverpool St. Leger, one and one-half miles, by eight lengths, and walked over for the Duchy Plate at Liverpool. She also ran second, giving twelve pounds to Beppo, in the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket, one and three-quarters miles, beating Polymelus.

ARCHAIC'S MOTHER ST. LEGER WINNER.

At the stud Keystone II. has produced: Keysee, winner of four races and $40,435 in 1919, when she won the St. Leger by six lengths, beating Dominion and Buchanan; Gratwicke Stakes, one and one-half miles, and Nassau Stakes, one and one-quarter miles, at Goodwood; and Newmarket Oaks, one and three-quarters miles.

Archaic won Prince of Wales Stakes at Goodwood in 1919; won Atlantic Stakes at Liverpool in 1920, and second to Spion Kop in the Derby of 1920.

Trestle ran twice in 1919 and won Northumberland Plate at Newcastle, two miles, by one and one-half lengths.

Seneschal won over one and one-half miles at three years and at four years.

Persimmon's daughters are justly valued in England, for the son of St. Simon was at the head of the list of the sires of dams of winners in 1914, 1915 and 1919. From 1912 to 1920 Persimmon's daughters bred the winners of 270 races and stakes, apart from place money, value close upon $3,000,000. Among their produce were: Priar Marcus, Llangibby, Revenger, Keysee, Keel, dear, Stefania, the Great, Prue, Maiden Erlegh and Lanus. Omar Khayyam was also from a mare by Persimmon.

Persimmon himself was one of the greatest race horses and sires of his time and was the English champion sire in 1902, when he won three years old, in 1906 and in 1908.

Lock and Key won five-eighths two-year-old races at Newmarket and Brighton. Her produce and winners:

Keystone II. Drawbridge won at two and three years old.

Lyndon Green won at over seven-eighths mile.

Boulter's Lock won Alexandra Handicap, Doncaster, one and one-half miles, and two other races at four years old.

Outside won six flat races in three seasons. Also won seventeen races over hurdles and one steeplechase up to thirteen years old. He won the All England Hurdle Handicap, carrying 178 pounds.

Janissary, the sire of Lock and Key, was by Isonomy—Janette, a mare which won the Oaks and the St. Leger in 1878. Janissary sired Jeddah, a Derby winner, which was from Pilgrimage. The last named mare was offered for sale at the same time as Lock and Key and Canterbury Pilgrim. She was "carrying" Jeddah, and realized the small sum of $800. Pilgrimage was then nineteen years old, however.

HOW THE FEMALE LINE CARRIED ON.

Seclusion, at two years old, won Zetland Plate at Leicester, Molecomb Stakes at Goodwood and Criterion Nursery at Newmarket. At three years old she won Coronation Stakes. She was also third in the Oaks. Seclusion was a winner of $24,280 in stakes. Her first foal was Lock and Key, which was sold for $7,000 at auction to Germany in 1894, with her foal. In Germany she bred six winners of twenty-five races. Her winning produce in Germany were Sturmlocke, Sangerin, Sagamore, Seestern, Saunter, all winners.

Boundary, which was a sister to St. Albans and to Savernake, ran in a few races at two and three years old, but did not win. She bred five winners of twenty races and stakes, value $63,965. They were:

Rousseau won four races at two and three years, including Ebor St. Leger, one and one-half miles.

Toscana, winner of five flat races at three years old, including the Chaddesden Cup and Dee Stakes. At five years he won the Liverpool hurdle race, two miles, and the Sandown Hurdle Race, two miles, with 167 pounds.

Seclusion, winner of the Coronation Stakes, Ascot, and three other races, value $24,280. Also ran third in the Oaks.

Out of Bounds won the Ditch Mile Nursery, Newmarket, with 124 pounds, and Ascot Maiden Plate, winner; Old Nursery Handicap, one mile, Newmarket, with 124 pounds, and Ascot Maiden Plate. She also won the three-year-old Free Handicap at Newmarket, one and one-quarter miles, beating Rayon d'Or and Chippendale. Altogether she won $11,425. She was also placed third in the Cambridgehire, for which thirty-one horses competed.

In Bounds, which bred four winners: Hall Caine, won over $5,500.

Ways and Means.

Income, which also bred four winners of over $40,000.

Mon Drott, winner of five races. Mon Drott was the dam of Diadem, the best two-year-old of his season, winner of $320,770, and sire of many winners in the United States.

Income bred Ritchie, Dividend, Cheque, Port Blair, winner of $23,265, and second in Irish Derby; Revenue, winner of $15,615, and third in the St. Leger.

Another daughter of In Bound's was Playing Field, the dam of winners and granddam of your fine race horse Major Daingerfield.

Bribery won eight races. She won three times at two years and the following season her five wins included the Goodwood Stakes, two and one-half miles, and Brighton Plate, one and one-quarter miles. She also ran third in the Oaks. She produced seven winners:

St. Albans, winner at three years in succession of Great Metropolitan Handicap, Epsom, two and one-quarter miles; Newmarket Stakes by four lengths; Chester Cup, two and one-quarter miles, and the St. Leger by one and one-half lengths.

He was also second in the Doncaster Cup. St. Albans won $42,840 in stakes and sired many high-class winners, including the famous Springfield, winner of seventeen first-class races.

SAVERNACE AND OTHER ANCESTORS.

Savernake, second to Lord Lyon in the Derby, beaten a head, twenty-six ran; second to Lord Lyon in the St. Leger, beaten a head; winner of Doncaster Stakes, beating Rustic. Also won Triennial Produce Stakes at Newmarket, one and one-quarter miles. A high-class sire on the continent.

Compromise won at two years; at three won Racing Stakes at Goodwood; Berkshire Stakes, two miles, and second in Ascot Stakes, 2 and one-half miles. Also won over two and one-half miles and two miles at four years.

Frailty won two races at three years old.

Franchise won Nursery Stakes at Newmarket, one mile; at three years ran in the One Thousand Guineas and Derby and died before running again.

Bridgewater won four races at five years old.

Petition won the Beaufort Handicap at Stockbridge, one and one-quarter miles, and Leamington Stakes at Warwick, two miles.

Beatrice, dam of Prestonpans, won four races at two years and the Liverpool Cup at three years.

Stockdove, dam of Pantall, won six races. Ringdove, Cushtat, Pigeon Pie and other winners in the United States.

Splitvote, the dam of Bribery, also bred: Knight of the Shire, winner of the Cambridgehire.

Lady Mary, dam of Gang Forward, winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, Ascot Derby, St. James Palace Stakes and second to Doncaster in the Derby.

Lady Mary also bred Wifey, the dam of Satiety, winner of fifteen races, including Fendale Stakes, Ascot and Liverpool Summer Cup. He sired many winners.

Splitvote was a half-sister to Miss Twickenham, which bred Teddington, winner of ten first-class races, including the Derby, for which he started favorite in a field of thirty-three and won by two lengths; Ascot Cup, two and one-half miles, beating Stockwell and Kingston; Doncaster Cup, two and one-half miles, beating Kingston and Newminster. Another half-sister to Splitvote was the dam of Laine, the latter was granddam of Thunio, which won the Grand Prix de Paris, Alexandria Plate, Ascot, and ten other races, and Lucetta, winner of the Cambridgehire and dam of Gold, which won the Ascot Cup and eight other races for $33,990.

Electress, the dam of Splitvote, was a daughter of a mare by Stamford. The latter was a half-sister to Lounger, winner of the St. Leger in 1797. The next dam, Miss Judy, was a half-sister to Ambidexter, also winner of the St. Leger, in 1790.

DEVELOPMENT OF A HORSE'S TEETH

A horse has two sets of teeth. The milk teeth are temporary and are the ones which the colt sheds, while those that come in or remain without being shed are called the permanent teeth. The cutting of the teeth in the foal varies some, but at or within nine days after birth the foal has four front teeth, two in the center above the two below and in the back part of the month he is found to have twelve molars, three on each side of the jaw; at from seven to nine weeks he gets four incisors in each jaw; at nine months old he gets the last of his milk or temporary teeth, these being the four corner teeth, two in the upper and two in the lower jaw.

Now he has his full set of milk, or temporary teeth, consisting of twelve molars or grinders and twelve incisors or front teeth, six above and six below, making twenty-four teeth in all. As the colt advances in age he must shed all these. After this age the colt commences getting his permanent teeth.

At one year old he gets four permanent molars, two in each jaw, one on each side behind the three temporary ones. At two years old he gets four more permanent molars, one on each side of each jaw. When the age of two years and nine months has been reached he sheds the four front nippers or center teeth, two above and two below, which are replaced by two permanent incisors in each jaw, and at the age of three years these four permanent incisors are up in wear. At this age the first eight temporary molars are shed, two on each side of the jaw, and are replaced by eight permanent molars, which are also up, and at three years and nine months he sheds four more front teeth next to the ones shed at three years old, two below and two above. These are replaced by four more permanent incisors, or front teeth, which are known as the lateral incisors, which are up in wear at four years old. Also at this age he sheds the four remaining temporary molars, which are replaced by four more permanent molars at the back of the month. Thus, at an age of four years the colt has a full set of permanent molars, consisting of six on each side of each jaw, making twenty-four in all. This is the hardest year on the colt.

At four years and nine months old he sheds the four remaining temporary incisors or front teeth, which are replaced by four permanent incisors. These are known as corner teeth, and should be up and in wear at five years old. It is well to become familiar with the time the colt sheds his different teeth, for sometimes the caps or shells of the teeth do not fall off when they should. These should be watched, for if they do not fall off when they should they greatly interfere with the animal's feeding and should have the attention of some good veterinary dentist. At five years of age the canine or bridle teeth, four in number, make their appearance, so at the age of five the colt has all his teeth, or what is known as a full mouth of teeth, numbering forty in all.
